

JOIN OUR SIDE-EVENT AT CSW66

Strengthening labour rights through cross-movement collaborations - trade unions, sex workers' organisations and feminist groups

The review theme during the CSW66 is women's economic empowerment in the changing world of work. This side event will focus on sharing effective approaches to protect and strengthen the human rights of sex workers. The larger framework of the side event will be on delineating the importance of intersectional approaches and cross-movement collaboration among feminist, sex workers' rights and labour rights groups. You are cordially invited to join!

Date: Friday 18 March 2022

Time: 8.30 - 10.00 AM EST

Interpretation available in: English, French, Spanish, Arabic, Russian, closed captioning provided in English (additional languages to be confirmed)

Please note that this event will be livestreamed.

Moderator:

Geetanjali Misra, Executive Director, CREA

Speakers:

Conxa Borrell, President of APROSEX and General Secretary of the Sex Workers Organisation OTRAS, Spain

Igor Bosc, Chief Technical Advisor, Work in Freedom Programme, International Labour Organization (ILO)

Karen Burbach, Head Taskforce Women's Rights & Gender Equality, Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Kholi Buthelezi, Director and a founding member of National sex workers movement in South Africa- SISONKE

Mariama Diallo, Secretary General, Democratic Union of Senegalese Workers (UDTS), Senegal

Matthew Parks, Parliamentary Coordinator at the Congress of South African Trade Unions (COSATU)

Dr. Thembisile Xulu, Chief Executive Officer, South African National AIDS Council (SANAC)

Please click here to register.

You will receive the link to the meeting with more information prior to the event.

Kingdom of the Netherlands

Internationaal

